Bloody Conflict Takes Place at Kansas City

ONE HUNDRED SHOTS FIRED

One Man Killed Four Fully Wounded and Two Other Heavily Injured—The Conflict Was Between the American Progressive Association and the Catholic
League of the Dead and Wounded

Kansas City, April 4.—The A. P. A. and the Catholic League came together in a bloody conflict at the polls in this city yesterday. It was not a riot, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray.

Mike Callahan (the man who was shot through the head) was shot through the head and is now in a critical condition. The Catholic League is responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray.

John McDevitt, a laborer, was shot through the head and is now in a critical condition. The Catholic League is responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray.

Only one hour before it was known that the Catholic League was planning to hold a meeting at the polls in this city yesterday. The Catholic League is responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray.

It was claimed that one of the Catholics was shot through the head and is now in a critical condition. The Catholic League is responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray, as the Catholics are responsible for the affray.

DELPHOS.
Interesting News From the Little Metropolis.

Local Notes and Personal Mention From the Busy Little Burg.

Delphos, April 4.—(Special Cor.)—Chas. Shenk was in Port Wayne yesterday on business.

Mr. E. Cox, storekeeper for the Pennsylvania company at Ft. Wayne, was in the city yesterday, on business.

Jim Hurley, of Lima, was in the city yesterday, on business.

P. F. agent Jim Ireland, of Midleport, was in the city yesterday.

Misses Rosie Grewe and Laura Alexander visited with friends in Lima yesterday.

Richard Davidson has bought the saloon owned by Miller Bros., on Main street. Mr. Davidson came here from Monroeville, Ind.

Joe Hurley was out on the streets yesterday with his new sprinkling wagon. It is a very fine arrangement and has the dust in good shape.

A horse hitched to a cart and tied to a fence on North Franklin street yesterday afternoon, became frightened at a passing traction engine and broke loose, upsetting the cart and breaking the shafts. The horse was secured and prevented from doing any further damage.

The choral society met in City hall last evening and went through a course of training under the leadership of Prof. Owens. They took up Hayden's oratorio, "Creation."

Council met last evening with a full board present. Considerable business was transacted during the two hours session, and they adjourned to meet again Friday evening.

Some of H. A. Prillman's friends at Frankfort made him a present of a baby cab yesterday for the new girl which arrived at his home last Saturday. The cab arrived here by express on the Clover Leaf road, and it was Ed. Kimball's duty to deliver the present at the home of Mr. Prillman.

It must have been a home-made affair, as it consisted of a soap box cut down to the shape of a cab, mounted on wheels six inches high, and had a sun shade made of an old wash pan. The cab was liberally helped with black paint, and inscribed on one end were the words, "Patent applied for by H. A. Prillman." When it was delivered at his home "Prill" looked at it for a few minutes and said, "Well, ain't that a peach?" The joke was a good one and greatly enjoyed.

Eliza Fangle finally turned up at his home, east of town, yesterday morning about 10 o'clock. His relatives here had become very anxious about him since his escape from the asylum last Saturday, and came to the conclusion that something must be done in the matter, as it seemed that the officials at the asylum were making no effort to find him. Yesterday morning Joseph Welsh was sent to Toledo to investigate the matter. Fangle, however, arrived at his home yesterday morning, and when asked why he came home, told a strange story. He said that last Saturday the guards had given him the privilege of the grounds, and seeing an opportunity to get away, he walked to Weston, a station on the C. & D., and took the train from there to Ottawa. He then walked from Ottawa to Rimer, arriving there Monday evening, and stayed over night with a man by the name of Rimer, who brought him home the next morning in a buggy. He appears perfectly sane and talked as rational as any man. He had a small amount of money and did not suffer for something to eat. He will not be returned to the asylum.

A dispatch was received by the police here yesterday from the P. F. agent at Conroy, to look out for five young tramps who were suspected of having broken open a freight car Monday night between here and Lima. The train was west bound and the tramps boarded the train at Lima, but did not disturb them. When the train arrived here the tramps left the train. When the train arrived at Conroy it was side-tracked to allow east bound passenger No. 9 to pass. The tramps made an examination of the train while standing there to see if everything was all right. They found that the seal had been broken on the end door of a car of merchandise, and upon entering the car it was found that several boxes had been broken open and quite a quantity of goods missing. The tramps were suspected of having committed the robbery. As the tramps left the train at this place the police were notified and a description of the men sent. Constable Bergfeld started yesterday to look up the tramps and located them at the P. F. creek bridge west of town. He came back to town and informed officers Lindemann and O'Neill of his discovery and together they went out to arrest them. The tramps were sitting on the bridge and did not notice the officers until they were close to them. Upon seeing them two of the party started to run but were called to a halt by revolvers in the hands of the officers. They were handcuffed and brought to town and locked up. They gave their names as follows: John Edwards, colored, of Boston, Mass.; Moses Livingston, of Cleveland, Ohio; Charles Stevens, of Boston, Mass.; and Sherman McNeil, of Newton-Hamilton, Pa. Edwards, the colored man, seemed to be the ringleader of the gang and is a thorough tough. He made a tour of the west part of town Monday. He carried a club on his shoulder and intimidated the people into giving him eatables. They had a regular camp on the creek bank and slept in an empty box car on the side-track. They are a tough looking gang. They were given a hearing before Mayor Baxter this morning and will no doubt be sent over the road.

TABLE NOVELTIES.

Ice cream forks are no longer the wide, short-tined fork alone; they are also a spoon, the bowl of which abruptly terminates in a cloven point. Sugar scissors are not new, but they are uncommon. They are like a wide watermelon, with one sharp-edged side and a strong lever attachment. With them a cube of loaf sugar can be quickly cut, and on the tea or demi-tasse tray they are very useful. Silver bread and butter plates, which are small, round trays, with one point curving out to take in the butter plate, are beautiful novelties. Tomato soup may be made especially good by the addition of a few slices of orange just before serving.

HEAD CRUSHED.

John Lyons' Awful Fate Near Indianapolis.

His Skull Crushed by a Low Bridge While Stealing a Ride on a Passenger Train.

George Lyons, the well known tailor, yesterday afternoon received a telegram from Indianapolis conveying the sad intelligence of the death of his brother John, who was killed on the railroad near that city.

The unfortunate young man was a tailor by trade and formerly worked in this city. He left here during the holidays. He immediately after receiving the telegram, George sent word to the Indianapolis corner to ship the remains to Celina, the home of the dead boy's parents, and left for that place himself at once, to prepare for their burial. The following telegram tells how he was killed:

John Lyons, a journeyman tailor of Lima, was killed early this morning while stealing a ride on the fast train on the Vandalia which leaves here at midnight. Lyons, with two companions, was seated on the top of one of the passenger coaches, and when the Eagle Creek.

BRIDGE WAS REACHED one of the men cautioned his companions that there was a low bridge Lyons sat erect and his head came in contact with the timbers, which crushed his skull and knocked him off the train and his body fell into the creek below.

The Coroner was notified and went to the scene, where Lyons' body was found lying on the rocks in the bed of the creek. Lyons' two companions were at the scene and told the Coroner the name of the deceased and said that they were trying to beat their way to Cincinnati. Soon after making their statement the two men disappeared and cannot now be found nor does the Coroner know their names. The authorities of Lima were notified and later in the day an answer was received saying that Lyons had a brother in the place who would communicate with the Coroner.

Three Fires

About three o'clock yesterday afternoon a small building north of Frank Taylor's residence at 215 Tingle Street was discovered to be on fire. The department arrived in time to save adjoining buildings.

A fire started about the same time in Stamer's lumber yard, originating from a locomotive spark. It was extinguished without an alarm.

About nine o'clock last night a burning fire called the department to North Main street. No damage was done.

ROUND ABOUT.

An electric line between Cincinnati and Dayton is being talked of.

Charles Mann is securing a collection of kodak pictures. He carries his machine with him and on recent trip through the Southern States visited a number of historic spots and has selected about twenty-five of the most valuable and had them bound. The pictures are exceptionally good and the collection which he intends adding to from time to time, will be a valuable one when he has it completed.

Findlay elected a Democratic major, defeating Weltermeyer by several hundred.

The appointment of Chief of Police did not come up at the meeting of the City Council last night as was expected, and the matter will now go over to the next Mayor and Council.

There is a great deal of speculation as to who the head of the department will be.

This is the Frankel's first week of single blessedness. Next Tuesday he will lend a prominent Cincinnati young lady to the altar and become a Benedict. A few friends will wish him every success.

A recent Lim visitor to the Ohio penitentiary saw Marvin Kubus, the desperado who is now the author of this county, who had him for an arrest several times. Kubus it will be remembered, was sent on from Lima for murdering a companion. He is now in the penitentiary and a captain of one of the gangs. The authorities recognize the fact that he is a very desperate man and keep a close guard on him. He never mentions the fact of his arrest, but talks of his life elsewhere. It is not probable he will ever ask for a pardon on account of the Indiana indictments for horse stealing hanging over him.

Harry Stein denies the statement made in the Gazette that he got $100 to buy the Third Ward for Peter Lies. Mr. Lies was well satisfied with the vote that he received in that ward as well as elsewhere in the city.

Contractor Lick of Canton, who has the contract of erecting the government building, arrived in the city this afternoon to superintend the work on the structure, which will be commenced at once. The buildings etc. have all been removed and to-morrow morning the work of striking off the ground preparatory to erecting, will be done. Mr. Lick says that the work will be pushed forward with all possible speed.

Visitors to the World's Fair who remember the magnificent Brewster coach shown in the Transportation Building, will be interested to learn that the coach, which was loaned to the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition, is now on its way back to the city. It is expected to arrive in the city this afternoon.

The latest judicial solution adopted is that of the late Judge John D. Williams.

Mr. Wheeler, a well known banker and attorney of Lima, was the speaker of the evening and read a exceedingly interesting paper on the "Situation of State from Local View."

This is the second of a series of lectures given by the Manufacturers Association on the tax question, the first being given by Mr. J. C. Weeks, of Pennsylvania, at the Grand Hotel, who is Secretary of the Pax Commission.

The Manufacturers Association tendered Mr. Wheeler the vote of thanks for his lecture, and the association and the proceedings of the meeting will be published in pamphlet form and properly distributed among the business men of the city.

The weather here is dreary and disturbed by frequent visions of winter waters and snow.

On the first of July a new money order system will go into effect in the post office by which the postage and the sum of money can be sent by letter with safety and at greatly reduced rates. With the institution of the new system the postal notes will be abolished, there will be no further need of them.

The postal note gives no security to the sender. A body can get one cashed by simply signing their name and presenting it for payment at any postoffice authorized to pay the notes so the risk in sending it through the mails is almost as great as sending it by mail. If it is lost in transit or otherwise no duplicate can be had. The new money order will be exempt from all these imperfections.

The check of fees to be charged for the new money order has been determined to the basis now charged by the various express companies for transmitting money. The fee will be as follows: 1 cent for $1 or less, 2 cents for $2 to $5, 3 cents for $5 to $10, 4 cents for $10 to $20, 5 cents for $20 to $50, 6 cents for $50 to $100, 7 cents for $100 to
